Carolyn - This is from my files to show you who Richard is - His step-mother was Rose Marie. He must have, but me, this info because I mentioned a connection to Garry Baker, but I didn't need it so feel free to keep it.

Some time ago the Auburn Paper had a group photo for which you & Richard stood side by side - so you're apparently not.

THE SLENTZ FAMILY LINE

All indications are that the Slentz family is also an old Pennsylvania Dutch line, arriving in Pennsylvania long before the American Revolution.

In Rupp's "30,000 Pennsylvania Immigrants", we find lists of immigrants who came from Europe to the English Colonies. These lists are ships passengers and give the date of arrival of the immigrants, the name of the ship, the European port of embarkation and the last port before leaving to cross the Atlantic. A typical entry is as follows:

> " 27 August 1733 on the ship "Eliza" of London, from Rotterdam, last from Dover. . . . Hans Jacob Metz . . . Henrich Slentz, . . . Hans Jacob Slentz Jr under 18, . . . Balser Metz . . . "

I do not claim relationship to the above Slentz immigrants (though it remains a possibility), I show it to point out that there were Slentz families in the Colonies as early as 1733 and possibly before. Even though most of these sailing ships happened to leave from Rotterdam, it does not mean that the passengers were Dutch. Rotterdam was the best seaport serving northwestern Europe and the passengers were all nationalities.

The next record on the Slentz family is a letter of Administration appointing Bashon Ryer, Jacob Seelay and Lodwick Stone, all of Lancaster County, Province of Pennsylvania, on the 28th day of April, 1741 as administrators for the estate of Jacob Slence, deceased. These men, after posting bond of thirty pounds, were to inventory the estate of Jacob before 28 May 1741 and offer a full accounting of the settlement of the estate on or before 28 April, 1742. A fact that should be noted at this point: York County, Pennsylvania was formed from Lancaster County in 1749. It might be that the lands of Jacob Slence, above, in 1741 were in that area formed into York County in 1749.

All other references that I can find pertaining to any Slentz family by any spelling (Slantz, Slints, Sluntz, Slence, etc.) up through 1790 are all located in York County, Pennsylvania.

In the Pennsylvania Archives, Volume 21, pages 101, 258, 350, 642, and 668, we find entries in the tax rolls for a Philip Slentz as follows:

York County	Heidleberg Twp	1779	5 acres	1 cow
York County	Heidleberg Twp	1780		1 cow 1:14:0 tax
York County	Heidleberg Twp	1781	5 acres	1 cow, 1 horse
York County	Heidleberg Twp	1782
York County	York Town	1783	1 male, ½ female(?), 4 servants, 3 Negros

In the same Volume, on page 491, a Jacob Slentz appears on the tax rolls for Hallam Township, York County in 1781. Jacob paid 7 pounds tax.

Other entries for Phillip and Jacob appear on tax lists from Mount Pleasant Township, York County. This Phillip and Jacob are probably the same men who were shown above in Heidleberg Township; their property extended across the township line.

1779	Philip Slench	128 acres	2 horses	3 cows
1780	Philip Slench	128 acres	2 horses	3 cows	18 pounds tax
1782	Philip Slench	128 acres	3 horses	3 cows	8 pounds 5s 2 p
1782	Jacob Slench		1 horse		3 pounds

Because of the difference in property ownership, it appears that Phillip is the older man and could be the father of Jacob. Military records indicate this same age relationship.

MILITARY RECORDS DURING THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

In the 6th Series, Pennsylvania Archives, Volume 2, pages 648 and 796, on the rolls of Captain John Wampler's Company of York County Militia we find that Private Philip Slentz served from 7 December 1781 until 7 February 1782. A rather unique note is also recorded in the Archives as follows:

"February the 26th 1787"

"Mr Skot Please to give Jacobe Trine the Bearer Thereof the intrust of mine for going to Camp Security as I am sick and cant come Down I have no certificate frm my Captain I was out in the 7th Class under Captain Wampler if you can you will oblidg your obedient servant

Philip Slentz"

This note could be a request for delayed payment for Revolutionary Service or could have been for a later assembly of the militia, since the War ended officially in 1783.

The men of a given district had an obligation to serve in the militia when called. This obligation included all men between 18 and 53 who were sound of body. The men were assigned to squads or companies by age and physical condition. A Private of the 1st class was a young man in sound physical condition; a Private of the 8th Class was an old man, or a younger man with some disability. In case of a minor alarm, only the men of the 1st or 2nd class would be called; in case of a dire emergency, men of all 8 classes could be mobilized. It is my guess that Philip Slentz was a man between 40 and 50 in the 1787 note, since he states that he was in the 7th class.

"Jacob Slance" served in Captain Ephrium Penningtons Company of the 1st Battalion, York County Militia between 9 December 1781 and 9 February 1782 and is recorded on the payroll covering those dates. The National Archives in Washington have no record of Jacob's service, but this is not unusual since militia service records are usually maintained by the individual states. I guess that Jacob and Philip were called into service with the Pennsylvania Militia to replace troops of the Continental Line who were occupied with General Cornwallis at Yorktown, Virginia.

TRACING THROUGH THE CENSUS RECORDS

The next record of the Slentz family is found in the 1st Census conducted in the United States, that covering the year 1790. There are only two Slentz families listed in Pennsylvania under any variation of the name. It so happens that the townships were not listed separated on these rolls for York County, but we know that the two families lived in either Berwick, Cumberland, Franklin, Germany, Hamiltonban, Heidleberg, Mount Pleasant, Mount Joy, or Straban Township.

John Slentz is shown on page 286 with 1 male over 16, 2 males under 16, and one female, and one other free person. I am sure this is actually Jacob Slentz and the name, John, is an error.

Philip Slentz is shown on page 290 with 1 male over 16, 2 males under 16, and one female.

In 1800, York County was split to form Adams County from the western half and a new York County from the eastern half. In the 1800 Census we find the Slentz families now in Adams County, not because they moved, but because the county lines moved.

Note that here also, Philip appears to be the older: another indication that Jacob is a son of Philip.

In the 1810 Census of Adams County, Conewago Township, Page 140, we find Elizabeth Slantz, a woman over 45, and a young man, probably her son between 16 and 26 years of age. Philip Slentz is missing, and I presume died between 1800 and 1810. Jacob Slentz is shown on page 49 in Mount Pleasant Township with the following family:

3 male -10	1 male 16-26	4 female -10	1 female 26-45
1 male 10-16	2 male 45+	1 female 10-16

In the 1820 Census for Ohio there are no families by the name of Slentz, by any spelling. We know then, that our branch had not moved to the west yet.

In 1830, Census for Columbiana County, West Township, Ohio, we have the following Slance families listed:

pg 515	Jacob Slance (Jr)	2 m -5, 1 m 5-10, 1 m 30-40, 1 f -5, 1 f 5-10, 1 f 10-15, 1 f 30-40 (living next door to Jacob Barnhart)
pg 515	Henry Slance	1 m 20-30, 1 f -5, 1 f 15-20

pg 515 Abner Slance 1 m 20-30, 1 f -5, 1 f 20-30

pg 520 Jacob Slance (Senior) 1 m -5, 1 m 5-10, 1 m 15-20, 1 m 20-30, 1 m 70-80, 2 f 5-10, 1 f 10-15, 2 f 15-20, 1 f 20-30, 1 f 40-50.

There are no other Slentz families in the 1830 Census of Ohio by any spelling.

J A C O B S L E N T Z

Jacob Slentz is the earliest member of our family that I can identify with a high assurance of being correct. I am sure that the majority of references to Jacob Slentz on the preceeding pages are for this man. I did not separate the previous entries and place them under this section, but left them to show the close proximity with Philip Slentz in both military service, land transactions and census records.

Jacob Slentz was born between 1750 and 1760, probably in York County, Pennsylvania. I think he was the son of Philip Slentz.

I think Jacob was married twice because of the difference in age between Jacob and his wife as they appear in the 1830 census records; she was at least 20 years younger then Jacob. I assume Jacob's first wife died about 1795 and he married his second wife, Mary, about 1800.

From the preceeding pages we know Jacob lived in York-Adams County, Pennsylvania until about 1825 and that he served in the Pennsylvania Militia during the American Revolution.

About 1825 the Slentz family moved from Pennsylvania and settled in West Township, Columbiana County, Ohio. On 11 November 1826, Jacob Sr sold land to his son, Jacob Jr in Section 17 of West Township (Vol 10, page 595, Columbiana Co Deeds). On the 7th of May 1829, Jacob and his wife Mary sold land in Section 17 to Samuel Hiner (Vol 12, page 357).

By the time of the 1830 Census, Jacob still had 10 children living at home and had three grown sons living near by. Jacob was well advanced in age and probably needed the help of the children to work the farm and provide for his large family. By 1840 there was only one son living with Jacob and Mary at the homestead; by now Jacob was over 80 years old.

Jacob died about July 1840 in West Township and John Foulks and Henry Slentz were appointed administrators for his estate on 17 August 1840. The total estate amounted to $764.38½, evidently in goods and personal property - there is no mention of land. Mary collected $313.70 and Eli, her son, $12.00. After all other debts were paid (including $5.00 for a coffin) the estate was settled in October 1842. The balance of the money in the estate was evidently split up between the widow, Mary, and the children, though no specific mention is made of it. Others who were paid, evidently for services to the estate were; Michael Slentz, Noah Slentz, Jacob Slentz Jr., and Eli Slentz, all sons of Jacob and Mary, and John Barnhart, a son-in-law, and Soloman Barnhart a brother of John Barnhart.

All factors considered, this was not a small estate, and indicates that Jacob was not a poor man. He had notes outstanding and evidently had a fair size crop of wheat, 122 bushels at 52¢ per bushel. Further court records (case 2281, Doc CP2, pg 58) state that all the children were over 15 years of age at the time of Jacob's death. Michael Flegle was appointed guardian of Noah, a minor, on 24 November, 1840. A civil case appears on the books in March 1842 where John Slentz brought suit against Mary Slentz et al (Vol 36, pg 763). A deed to a lawyer is signed by Henry, Eli, Andrew, Michael, Abner and Jacob Slentz. The details of the case are not given, nor is its outcome. The dispute was probably over the settlement of the land left by Jacob.

Mary, Jacob's wife, was born in Pennsylvania c1779 and was still alive in 1850 when the Census showed her living next door to her son, Andrew and his family in Columbiana County, Ohio. (pg 779, family 35)

THE CHILDREN OF JACOB AND MARY SLENTZ

I. JACOB SLENTZ JR - b c1795 (age 60 in Mar 1855) probably in York County, Pennsylvania. Jacob was living in Stark County, Ohio on 18 Dec 1858 when he was the administrator of the estate of Henry Hohn, deceased, of Columbiana County, Ohio. Owned land in R5 T15 Sec 17 being part of 100 acre tract conveyed to the widow and heirs of Frederick Schellenberger by John Hiner (Vol 58, pg 417). Served in the War of 1812 as the 4th Cpl in Capt George Frysinger's Company of Infantry in the 3rd Regiment of Pennsylvania Militia under Col LeFever. Drafted on 1 Nov 1814 and marched to the defense of Baltimore. Since the British had evacuated by the time they arrived, he was discharged there on 5 Dec 1814. His place of residence is given as York Co, Penna with zero miles to the rendezvous at Hanover. At the time of his discharge he was 42 miles from home (the distance from Hanover, Penna to Baltimore, Md). Jacob entered a land bounty claim on 28 Sep 1850 from Stark Co, Ohio based on this service and was awarded 40 acres of land. On a later application, 17 Mar 1855, Jacob was given an additional warrent for 120 acres. His original orders to report for service and his discharge are in file # BLWT 7799-120-500 in the National Archives. His orders state as follows:

> "Sir
> Take note that you are hereby Required, personally or by a Sufficient Substitute, to apear as a Soldier properly armed and equipped for Service, at Ten o'clock at M on Tuseday the 1st day of Novem next, on the public Square, in the Town of Hanover to March emediately."

E L I Z A S L E N T Z

Eliza Slentz was born on the 5th of December 1822 in Mount Pleasant Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of Mary and Jacob Slentz.

When Eliza was an infant, the family moved from Adams County, Pennsylvania to Columbiana County, Ohio. The trip was probably made by boat up the rivers to the vicinity of Youngstown, Ohio. From there the family traveled by ox team to their new home in the wilderness in Section 17 in West Township, which is about 6½ miles to the west north west of Hanovertown, Ohio.

Eliza was raised on the family farm with her brothers and sisters who were living at home or married and living near by. Down the road two miles lived the family of Peter Barnhart.

On the 15th of November, 1838, Eliza married young John Barnhart, the son of Peter Barnhart. Their marriage is recorded in Vol 3, pg 201 in the Marriage Records of Columbiana County. It appears that this was actually a double wedding and that Eliza's sister, Lydia, married Cyrenias Bates at the same time. This was not unusual on the frontiers because of the shortage of ministers - marriages and baptisms often had to wait until the traveling minister arrived in the neighborhood to perform his duties. Eliza was just a few weeks away from her 16th birthday when she married.

Both Eliza and John came from large families and the family farms could not support all the young married couples. Between 1845 and 1850 many of their relatives and neighbors started heading for newly opened land in western Ohio and Indiana. In 1846 or 1847 John and Eliza joined the migration and settled in Union Township (now Grant Township) in KeKalb County, Indiana.

Their first home was a two room log cabin with a stone fireplace on what later became the Keller farm near Waterloo. Their 6th child was born in their new home on the 13th of July 1848. It is a known fact that the family was not prosperous and had to work hard to support themselves. Eliza often shared in the heavy manual work demanded of the farm and at the same time bore and reared 13 children. Eliza's brother, Michael lived about 4 doors from them in 1860 and about 10 doors away lived the Rockwells.

During the Civil War, their 3rd son, Noah, was killed in action at Iuka, Mississippi as a member of Company I, 48th Indiana Infantry. John, her husband, died on 26 February 1876 at the age of 60.

In the summer of 1880 Eliza was still living at the homestead with her son, Levi who was now 19. With them is Eliza Keller, her widowed daughter, and her four year old granddaughter, Etta Barnhart. In the Census record for 1880, Eliza stated her place of birth as Pennsylvania and stated that her parents were born in Switzerland. This is possible, but probably she meant her grandparents were born in Switzerland and she was repeating a family story about Swiss origins. We do know that Eliza could not read or write and this may have been a misunderstanding between her and the census taker. We do know that many of the Pennsylvania-Dutch were Swiss. Linnie Rockwell Shook has stated that her mother, Malinda Barnhart, Eliza's daughter, could speak German.

Eliza lived on alone until her death on the 24th of January, 1900. Eliza's death certificate gives the cause of death as tuberculosis and old age after several years illness. She was buried in Waterloo on the 26th day of January, 1900. Extensive searches have failed to locate her grave, but it is probably in the Waterloo Memorial Cemetery near her husband John Barnhart.
